

CHATEAU CAMPLAZENS

2005 Serendipity Syrah

Vineyard Description:

Chateau Camplazens is located in the Languedoc region of France in the sub-appellation of La Clape. La Clape is an environmentally protected mountain overlooking the Mediterranean in which the only permitted activity is grape growing. Since purchasing the vineyard Peter and Susan Close have worked hard to establish Chateau Camplazens as a premium vineyard, with low yields, organic viticulture and modern vinification techniques. Most importantly they want the terrior of La Clape to speak for itself and show the true nature of Chateau Camplazens through its wines.

Varieties: 100% Syrah

Number of Cases Produced: 3,000

Food Pairings:

Discovering something wonderful when you least expect it is one of life's greatest joys. The Serendipity Syrah represents exceptional value for an every day red wine. Medium bodied with no oak, fresh complex fruits, and notes of lavender and spice, this wine can be enjoyed with a wide variety of foods.
